PRESS RELEASE

The 11th Meeting of the State Advisory Committee of the Nagaland Electricity Regulatory Commission was held on 24th March, 2017 in the Conference Hall of the Engineer-in-Chief, Department of Power, Nagaland, Kohima.

The Members deliberated on Unbundling & Corporatisation of Power Department, ongoing 186 MW Dikhu Hydro Electric Project and setting up of Consumer Grievances Redressal Forum (CGRF) & Ombudsman which are steps towards power sector reform in Nagaland. Considering the present power sector scenario in the State where the consumers are adversely affected, the members resolved for early implementation of the aforesaid reforms for providing quality power supply to the consumer and advised the Commission to further pursue before the State Government.

The members also deliberated on the power Tariff for FY 2017-18 filed by the Power Department, Nagaland and advised the Commission to go ahead for its finalisation.
